

INVITATION

We call to the WATERTOUR - Development of water tourism on waterways connecting Hungary and Serbia, project number HUSRB/1602/31/0204

Society and economy in the Tisza River Valley workshop

The workshop aims to present socio-economic potentials for water tourism development through different dimensions (e.g. demographic, migration, labour market trends) in the Tisza River Valley. Moreover, the workshop gives an opportunity for project partners to discuss main aspects of comparative analyses in detail both in the Hungarian and the Serbian study areas. Results of the workshop will help formulate recommendations for decision makers in the Hungarian-Serbian cross border region for water tourism development.

The date of the workshop: 10:00, 26th April 2019, Friday
